Hello Russ,

I sent an email to you with the purpose of the call. I have included that information here as well. This call will be to resurrect the project, summarize current status, identify next steps, and propose a preliminary schedule for next steps. Let's use PCB FAST as a reference to structure the next steps.

For the February 2, 2018 call, please call me at 415.972.3360. I will try to call you during the week and prior to February 2.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Best,
Carmen
